Mission

The Angus Tourism Cooperative is comprised of Angus businesses whose aim is to work together to improve the tourism offer in Angus and to promote the area as a visitor destination, resulting in economic growth.

The cooperative will provide one voice for tourism businesses, a forum to share views and experiences, and the opportunity to network, collaborate and develop the skills of members.

Membership

The Angus Tourism Cooperative (ATC) is a not for profit consortium cooperative, which is a democratic membership organisation. It is a company limited by guarantee, with each participating business becoming a member of the company and each member having an equal say in how the consortium is run.

- Membership is open to individuals or bodies involved in the tourism sector in Angus.
- Associate Membership is open to individuals or bodies that support, or are engaged in business complementary to, the tourism sector in Angus.

Membership Fee

- The annual membership fee is £25, for both full and associate membership.
- The fee is payable in April of each year.

N.B. The fund from membership fees will allow the group to apply to various funding sources including VisitScotland's Growth fund.

Member Benefits

- The opportunity for collaborative working and to get involved in dedicated projects.
- The ability to access information about what's happening in Angus.
- Access to valuable networking events and opportunities.
- Access to training and skills development opportunities.
- The ability to use the ATC logo on business website/marketing materials.
- Access to reciprocal offers from members.
- Access to a closed Facebook Group, providing a forum for advice and support, and to share ideas and suggestions.
- Being part of an alliance, which will provide a strong voice for the tourism sector in Angus.

For more information, please visit www.angustourism.co.uk for a copy of the ATC Members Agreement, or email contact@angustourism.co.uk
